GENTLENKE—It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great value of the Metailic Insoles. I have been a great suiterer from rheumatism for a long time back, and had sought relief ineffectually from physicians and the various medical preparations warranted to cure me. I was in duced to try your Insoles, and my gratitude compels me to state that their use, for a short time, gave me complete relief, and I am enabled to resume my business pursuits, from which I was long debarred by my liness.
